

BYLAWS
OF
SOCCER FORWARD, INC.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERS

1.1. Membership. The sole member of Soccer Forward, Inc., a Delaware charitable nonstock corporation (the "Corporation") is United States Soccer Federation, Inc. (the "Member"). The Member shall act through its President or any person or persons designated by the Member's Board of Directors to act on behalf of the Member. There shall be no other members of the Corporation.

1.2. Action by Consent in Lieu of a Meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, the Member may take action by written consent without a meeting. The written consent shall be filed with the records of the Corporation.

ARTICLE II

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

2.1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board"), which may exercise all of the powers permitted to or conferred on a board of directors, except as limited by the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, and those powers expressly reserved to the Member. The Board may adopt such rules and procedures, not inconsistent with the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law, as it may deem proper for the conduct of its meetings and the management of the Corporation.

2.2. Number, Election, Qualification, and Term.

(a) The initial directors will be elected by the incorporator. Thereafter, the Member shall elect the directors.

(b) The Member may determine from time to time the number of directors constituting the entire Board. The phrase "entire Board" refers to the total number of voting directors that the Corporation would have if all vacancies were filled.

(c) Each director shall hold office for a term of one year and until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until the director's earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal.

2.3. Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies. Any newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors and any vacancies occurring on the Board may be filled by the Member. A director so elected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of office and a successor is duly elected and qualified, or such director's earlier death, incapacity, resignation or removal.

2.4. Resignation and Removal. Any director may resign at any time by written notice to the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Corporation, unless otherwise specified in the resignation. Except as prohibited by applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation, one or more of the directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the Member.

2.5. Chair of the Board: Vice-Chair of the Board. The Board may elect from its members a Chair and a Vice-Chair of the Board, neither of whom need to be an employee of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by the Board, the Chair of the Board, if one is elected, shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The Chair shall have such other powers and shall perform such duties as the Board may from time to time designate. Unless otherwise provided by the Board, in the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair, if one is elected, shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The Vice Chair shall have such other powers and shall perform such duties as the Board may from time to time designate.

2.6. Notice of Meetings and Waiver of Notice.

(a) Notice need not be given of regular meetings of the Board held at times and places fixed by resolution of the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be held at such times and at such places as may be determined by the Chair or the President on at least 24 hours' notice to each director given by means other than by mail (including by electronic transmission) or on at least three (3) days' notice if given by mail. Special meetings shall be called by the Chair or the President in like manner and on like notice on the written request of any two or more directors.

(b) Whenever notice to directors is required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a waiver thereof, in writing signed by, or by electronic transmission by, the director entitled to the notice, whether before or after such notice is required, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special Board or committee meeting need be specified in any waiver of notice.

2.7. Quorum and Manner of Acting. The presence of a majority of the entire Board constitutes a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of the directors participating in a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

2.8. Action by Unanimous Written Consent in Lieu of a Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if all directors consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission, and the writings or electronic transmissions are filed with the minutes of the Board in accordance with applicable law.

2.9. Meeting by Telephone, Video Conference or Similar Communications Equipment. Directors may participate in any meetings of the Board or any committee thereof through conference calls, video conferences or other forms of communication that permit participants to hear and be heard by all other participants, and such participation shall constitute the presence in person by such director at such meeting.

ARTICLE III

COMMITTEES

3.1. Committee Composition and Authority.

(a) The Board may designate one or more committees. Each committee is to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation with such lawfully delegable powers and duties as the Board thereby confers to serve at the pleasure of the Board (each such committee, a "Board Committee"). The Board may designate one more directors as alternate members of any Board Committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the Board. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a Board Committee, the member or members of the Board Committee present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another director of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such Board Committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board and subject to the provisions of law, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Any committee composed of any voting members who are not directors shall be advisory in nature only.

(b) No Board Committee shall have the power or authority in reference to: (i) adopting, amending or repealing any of these Bylaws, or adopting or amending any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, (ii) approving, adopting or recommending to the Member any action or matter (other than the election or removal of directors) expressly required by law to be submitted to the Member for approval, (iii) any actions that may require the approval of the entire Board under applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, (iv) filling vacancies in any Board Committee, (v) electing, appointing or removing any member of any Board Committee or any officer, or (vi) amending or repealing any resolution of the Board.

3.2. Executive Committee. The Corporation shall have an Executive Committee composed entirely of directors, which shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board during the intervals between meetings of the Board, and subject only to such limitations as may be required by law or by resolution of the Board. The Executive Committee shall report its decisions to the full Board. The members of the Executive Committee shall include the Chair, the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and three to five additional directors appointed by the Chair in consultation with the Board. The Chair shall serve as the chairperson of the Executive Committee.

3.3. Procedures, Quorum and Subcommittees. Each Board Committee shall keep minutes and make such reports as the Board may from time to time request. Except as the Board may otherwise determine, any Board Committee may make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by the Board Committee or in such rules, its business shall be conducted as nearly as possible in the same manner as is provided in these Bylaws for the Board. The presence of a majority of the then-appointed members of a Board Committee shall constitute a quorum, and the vote of a majority of the members of the Board Committee participating in a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of such Board Committee. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or the resolutions of the Board designating the Board Committee, a Board Committee may create one or more subcommittees, each subcommittee to consist of one or more members of the Board Committee, and delegate to a subcommittee any or all of the powers and authority of the Board Committee.

3.4. Action by Unanimous Written Consent in Lieu of a Meeting. Board Committee action may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the Board Committee consent thereto in writing (including by electronic transmission), and the writing or writings are filed with the records of the committee.

3.5. Term and Termination. In the event any person shall cease to be a director of the Corporation, such person shall simultaneously therewith cease to be a member of any Board Committee.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

4.1. Election and Qualifications. The Board shall appoint the officers of the Corporation, which shall include a President, Secretary, and Treasurer. The President, Secretary, and Treasurer must be appointed from among the directors of the Corporation. The officers may include one or more Vice-Presidents and such assistant secretaries, such assistant treasurers and such other officers as the Board may from time to time determine. Each officer shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed by these Bylaws and as may be assigned by the Board. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except that no one person may hold the offices of both President and Treasurer.

4.2. Term. Each officer shall hold office for a term of one year and until a successor is elected and qualified or until the officer's earlier death, resignation or removal. Any vacancy in any office arising from any cause may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the Board.

4.3. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may resign at any time upon written notice to the Corporation. Any officer may be removed from office, with or without cause, at any time by the Board.

4.4. Duties and Authority. The officers shall have such duties and authority as customarily pertain to their offices except as modified by these Bylaws or the Board.

(a) President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board, unless a Chair of the Board has been appointed and is present. Unless some other officer has been elected CEO, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board, have general supervision, direction and control of the business and officers of the Corporation. The President shall perform other duties commonly incident to the office and shall also perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board shall designate from time to time.

(b) Secretary. The Secretary shall prepare or supervise the preparation of the minutes of the meetings and other actions of the Board, Board Committees and the Member. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, required notice of all meetings of the Member and the Board. The Secretary shall have custody of the books, records, and documents (other than those maintained by the Treasurer), and shall attest deeds, contracts, leases and other legal instruments and formal documents and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Board or the President.

(c) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the receipt, custody, and disbursement of all monies of the Corporation; shall keep or cause to be kept proper books of accounts of such receipts and disbursements; and shall prepare or cause to be prepared financial statements in such forms and at such times as may be required by the Board or the President.

(d) Vice-President. A Vice-President may execute and deliver in the name of the Corporation contracts and other obligations and instruments pertaining to the regular course of the duties of said office, and shall have such other authority as from time to time may be assigned by the Board or the President.

(e) Assistant Officers. Any assistant officer shall have such powers and duties of the officer whom such assistant officer assists as such officer or the Board shall from time to time prescribe.

(f) Other Officers. Other officers may be elected by resolution of the Board and shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed in such resolution.

(g) Duties of Officers May Be Delegated. In case any officer is absent, or for any other reason that the Board may deem sufficient, the President or the Board may delegate for the time being the powers or duties of such officer to any other officer or to any director.

ARTICLE V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

5.1. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended, any person ("Indemnified Person") who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or by reason of the fact that such person while serving as a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another company, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust or other enterprise, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such person in such Proceeding. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this Article, the Corporation shall be required to indemnify an Indemnified Person in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Indemnified Person only if the commencement of such Proceeding (or part thereof) by the Indemnified Person was authorized in advance by the Board.

(b) The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnified Person to repay all amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

(c) If a claim for indemnification (following the final disposition of the Proceeding for which indemnification is sought) under this Article is not paid in full within 60 days after a written claim therefor by the Indemnified Person has been received by the Corporation, or a claim for advancement of expenses under this Article is not paid in full within 30 days after any statement therefor has been received by the Corporation, the Indemnified Person shall thereupon be entitled to file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim. If successful in whole or in part, the Indemnified Person shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim to the fullest extent permitted by law. In any such action the Corporation shall have the burden of proving that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to the requested indemnification or advancement of expenses under applicable law.

(d) Any right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses of any Indemnified Person arising hereunder shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to or repeal of this Article after the occurrence of the act or omission that is the subject of the Proceeding for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought.

(e) The rights conferred on any Indemnified Person by this Article shall not be exclusive of any other rights that such Indemnified Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws or any agreement, any action of the Member, or any vote of disinterested directors or otherwise. This Article shall not limit the right of the Corporation, to the extent and in the manner permitted by law, to indemnify or to advance expenses to persons other than Indemnified Persons when and as authorized by appropriate corporate action.

5.2. Manner of Notice and Waiver of Notice. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, notices and waivers of notice shall be in writing and delivered in any manner permitted by the law. Whenever written notice is required, a written waiver signed by the person entitled to notice whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

5.3. Amendments. The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Corporation shall be amended, or repealed in whole or in part, and new Bylaws may be adopted, exclusively by the Member, either directly or upon recommendation by the Board.

Adopted by the Incorporator on September 9, 2023.
