DEFINITIONS

Terms used in these By-laws that are defined in the Definitions section of the World Aquatics Constitution shall have the same meaning as set out in the World Aquatics Constitution.

1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 The present By-laws have been adopted by the Bureau, based on Article 17 lit. c of the World Aquatics Constitution.
- 1.2 The purpose of these By-laws is to provide implementing rules and policies on the basis of the World Aquatics Constitution and to set out rules of order for an efficient and transparent functioning of World Aquatics and its bodies, in line with World Aquatics' objectives and the mission of World Aquatics.

2 CONGRESS

2.1 General Rules

The Congress is the highest authority of World Aquatics. It is held either as an Ordinary Congress or as an Extraordinary Congress. A Congress may be held in person, by teleconference, by videoconference or by another means of communication. Voting by correspondence (including email) and/or online is permitted.

2.2 Procedural Matters

- 2.2.1 Motions shall be dealt with according to the order of precedence prepared by the World Aquatics Office or determined by the Chair of the Congress. Motions and proposals of the Bureau shall take precedence.
- 2.2.2 In case the Bureau wishes to make a recommendation in connection with a certain motion, such recommendation shall be announced when the motion is dealt with by the Congress. The Bureau may decide to recommend "motion to be accepted", "motion to be rejected" or any other proposal that the Bureau may consider to be in the interest of World Aquatics.
- 2.2.3 Proposals, in order of precedence, shall be discussed and voted upon, provided that such proposals are not similar in meaning and intent to those already rejected.
- 2.2.4 The National Federation proposing a motion shall briefly explain the motion if the National Federation wishes to do so.
- 2.2.5 In principle, each National Federation shall have the right to speak in relation to a certain motion only once. The period of speeches may be limited by the Chair of the Congress.
- 2.2.6 The Chair of the Congress has the flexibility and power to make any necessary decisions in order to expedite the business of the Congress in an efficient, fair and practical manner.
- 2.2.7 Bureau Members shall be encouraged to participate in a Congress by video or other electronic means, where possible. The Executive shall determine in advance which Bureau members shall attend in person, taking into due consideration any matter that may require the attendance in person by a certain Bureau Member as well as seniority, geographical and gender distribution, cost efficiencies and a reasonable rotation. Members of the Executive shall, if possible, attend a Congress in person.
- 2.2.8 National Federations shall be represented, in principle, by up to two (2) duly appointed delegates. The office of World Aquatics will determine from time to time the applicable formal accreditation requirements, taking into due consideration security, health and organizational issues.

2.3 Voting

- 2.3.1 Before submitting a motion to a vote, the Chair of the Congress shall present the question concerned in concise, clear, and unequivocal terms.
- 2.3.2 The Chair of the Congress will propose for the approval of the Congress at least three scrutineers to oversee the voting mechanism and vote calculation. Their report shall be given to the Chair of the Congress or the Executive Director orally or in written form.
- 2.3.3 The methods of voting which may be applied (for and against) are:
- a) by show of hands;
 - b) by a secret ballot, proposed and seconded;
 - c) by electronic equipment;
 - d) by correspondence (including email); or
 - e) online.

2.3.4 Unless otherwise stated in these By-laws, decisions by the Congress are made counting only the valid votes cast. Accordingly, abstentions and invalid votes shall not be counted.

If the correctness of a vote is questioned, the Chair of the Congress shall decide the validity of the complaint.

2.4 Elections

Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot. In case the number of candidates is not higher than the number of free positions, the Congress may decide to elect the candidates by acclamation.

3 BUREAU

3.1 Continental Representatives

3.1.1 Twenty-two (22) Bureau Members are elected by the Congress as continental representatives. They shall be distributed geographically and per gender as determined in the World Aquatics Constitution.

3.1.2 The Bureau shall set a deadline to the Continental Organisations to nominate candidates, considering the requirements under the World Aquatics Constitution.

3.1.3 All Candidates are subject to an eligibility check by the Aquatics Integrity Unit.

3.1.4 The Bureau shall review the candidatures received from the Continental Organisations and make a proposal to the Congress, taking into due consideration all the criteria set out in the World Aquatics Constitution, including geographical representation, gender, background, knowledge, etc.

3.2 World-at-Large Bureau Members

3.2.1 Sixteen (16) additional Bureau Members are elected by the Congress as World-at-Large Bureau Members. They shall be distributed geographically and per gender as determined in the World Aquatics Constitution.

3.2.2 The Bureau shall set a deadline to the National Federations to nominate candidates for the position as a World-at-Large Bureau Member considering the requirements under the World Aquatics Constitution. The Bureau may, at its discretion, request the Continental Organisations to cooperate with the Bureau in the evaluation of the candidates proposed by their National Federations. In case there are not sufficient candidatures from a certain continent, the Bureau may grant a deadline to the respective Continental Organisation to nominate candidates.

3.2.3 All Candidates are subject to an eligibility check by the Aquatics Integrity Unit.

3.2.4 The Bureau shall review the candidatures received and make a proposal to the Congress, taking into due consideration all the criteria set out in the World Aquatics Constitution, including geographical representation, gender, background, knowledge, etc.

- c) to serve as scrutineers during the election; and
- d) to report the results of the election to the Congress.

7.6.2 The Election Committee may investigate any activity around the elections and collect any form of evidence, including hearing witnesses and experts. All persons subject to the Election Rules must fully collaborate with the investigation.

7.6.3 The members of the Election Committee shall be proposed by the President and approved by the Bureau.

8 COMPETITIONS AND EVENTS

8.1 The Bureau shall issue appropriate rules for the authorisation and sanction of international Aquatics competitions and events.

8.2 The Bureau shall issue appropriate competitions rules for Aquatics competitions and events, taking into due consideration the specificities and the needs of all disciplines.

9 AUTONOMY AND MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS OF WORLD AQUATICS MEMBERS

9.1 When the autonomy of a National Federation is being, or is, compromised, the World Aquatics Executive is entitled to take any appropriate decisions in order to protect the benefits of Aquatic Sports in the Country of such National Federation. These measures include the suspension or the expulsion from the World Aquatics membership if the constitution, law or other regulations in force in the Country of the National Federation concerned, or any act by any governmental or other body provokes the activity of the National Federation or the making or expression of its will to be hampered.

9.2 Members of the World Aquatics Members, in particular clubs, shall only be able to exercise their voting rights at the general meetings of the World Aquatics member to which they are affiliated if they comply with the following conditions:

- a) they shall have a minimum of 10 affiliated athletes;
- b) they shall participate in national championships and other national Aquatics competitions recognised and/or organised by the World Aquatics member to which they are affiliated;

- c) they shall pay their annual membership fee set by the World Aquatics member to which they are affiliated and comply with all other financial obligations; and
- d) they shall fully comply with the rules enshrined in World Aquatics Constitution, notably complying with and implementing decisions taken by the Court of Arbitration for Sport, by World Aquatics (notably taken by the Congress, the Bureau, the Executive or/and judicial panels) and the World Aquatics member to which they are affiliated, as well as supporting World Aquatics and the World Aquatics member to which they are affiliated in their efforts to achieve their objectives.

10 INELIGIBILITY

10.1 The following By-law is adopted by the Bureau further to Article 17.1(c) of the World Aquatics Constitution.

10.2 The purpose of this By-law is to support the values of the Olympic Movement, including the commitment to the World Anti-Doping Code, and to protect the integrity and the image of Aquatic sports, and the health, safety and well-being of Aquatics Athletes. It complements the separate and independent obligation that is owed by those who are subject to the Rules and Regulations not to do anything that brings Aquatic sports into disrepute.

10.3 For purposes of this By-law, a 'Relevant Person' means any individual who:

- a) is presented by a National Federation to World Aquatics:
 - for registration to participate (in any capacity) in a World Aquatics event or competition; or
 - as a candidate for election or appointment to any World Aquatics office or other position, or to a World Aquatics committee or other body.
- b) and, at a time when they were not subject to the Rules and Regulations:
 - actively supported or endorsed a sporting event or competition that embraces scientific enhancements that include the use of Prohibited Substances or Prohibited Methods (as those terms are defined in the Doping Control Rules) and/or the use of any illegal drug; and/or
 - participated (in any capacity) in any such event or competition; and/or
 - supported (e.g., as a coach, trainer, manager, training partner, doctor, or physiotherapist) any other person in their preparation for and/or participation in any such event or competition.

10.4 A Relevant Person shall not be eligible:

- a) to be accredited for and/or to participate (in any capacity) in a World Aquatics event or competition;
- b) to be employed or engaged by World Aquatics;
- c) to be elected or appointed to any World Aquatics committee or other body or to any World Aquatics office or other position; or
- d) to participate in any other activity organised by World Aquatics.

10.5 The Bureau shall decide on the application of this By-law in each particular case. A decision by the Bureau that a person is ineligible under this By-law may be challenged only by that person, and only by appealing that decision to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in accordance with Article 31.2 of the World Aquatics Constitution. That person may not challenge this By-law or that decision in any other forum; and no one else shall have standing to challenge in any forum, or to appeal against, either this By-law or any decision made by the Bureau pursuant to this By-law.

- 10.6 Member Federations may choose to apply a similar policy for national competitions and events under their jurisdiction. Any such policy or consequent decision at a national level shall not impact or limit in any way the powers of the Bureau under this By-law.

Lausanne, 20 June 2025

For the Bureau:

The President

Husain Al Musallam

The Executive Director
